SCHOOL HOLIDAYS

Geometry and Abstraction

Wednesday 5

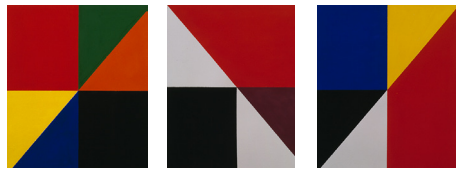

April

11:00am -

12:30pm

Ages 6+

Cost: $15

Top: Robert JACKS Square hats stood round 1994, oil on canvas. Bottom: Robert JACKS Who's afraid of red, yellow, blue and black? (detail) 1977 gouache on paper. Collection of McClelland Sculpture Park+Gallery

Work with gallery educator Imogen Good to create your own geometric artworks.

Be inspired by the shapes, forms and colours in the exhibition Resonance then head down to the studio to create a variety of works using collage and paint to take home.

Remember to dress for mess!

Nature Play Week

Bush textiles

Wednesday 12

April 11:00am to

12:00pm

Monday 17 April

1:00pm - 2:00pm

Ages 3+

Adult supervision required.

Free.

Work with artist and educator Margaret Peppard to explore the beautiful grounds of McClelland for Nature Play Week.

Gather twigs, sticks and branches and make a traditional back-strap loom.

Families will then sit under trees in the park weaving with natural fibres and organic materials creating a woven bush textile.

Young children can enjoy wrapping twigs with natural fibres and create a collaborative sculpture in the park. Remember to dress for mess!
